DELEGATES AS ONE FOR JUSTICE

Fairbanks Takes Second Place With Unanimous Vote Af- ter Brief Contest

Chicago, June 10.—Charles Evans Hughes, of New York, was today nominated for the president of the United States by the Republican National convention and Charles Warren Fairbanks, of Indiana, was named vice-president. Hughes' nomination came on the third ballot of the convention. But one ballot was needed to select the vice-presidential candidate.

There was an enthusiastic demonstration after the candidates had been named.

ROAD WORK GETS LARGE FUND

Kentucky's Share, $100,000 For Road Improvement, During The Next Fiscal Year

Washington.—Under the terms of the revised bill, providing for federal aid in the construction of rural post roads that was passed by congress, Kentucky will receive a generous amount during each of the five years for which the appropriation is carried.

Of the $5,000,000 to be expended by the Federal Government during the next fiscal year, for road improvement in the several states, Kentucky's share is $100,000. During the second year when $10,000,000 is to be spent, the state's apportionment is $201,000; during the third year, the State is scheduled to receive $301,800 of the $15,000,000 to be expended; during the fourth year, Kentucky's share is to be $402,400 of $20,000,000, and for the fiscal year ending June 30th 1921, when $25,000,000 is to be spent, the State is to receive $503,000 for road building.

The apportionment to Kentucky and her sister states as made on the basis of area, population and the mileage of rural delivery and star routes.

Kentucky embraces 40,181 square miles; her population is 2,289,905 and she has 26,769.34 miles of rural delivery and star routes. As a result, the State is scheduled to receive 2.042 per cent of the Federal apportionment, provided, of course, she complies with the provisions of the proposed law.

KEEP THEM MOVING

Another Couple Gone Wrong. Chased Into Crittenden County. Warrant Sent For Execution.

There is a report current here that Mack Mitchell's wife left her husband and ran away with Tom Dunning, who left his wife for his paramour.

Mrs. Dunning came to Smithland and secured a warrant for her husband, but up to this writing, absconding couple have not been located. They resided across the Cumberland only a short distance from this place. They left on the Dispatch, disembarking at Dycusburg, so the report goes, and resumed their journey across the country in the direction of Marion. Deputy Sheriff W. C. Barnwell chased the run-a-ways into Crittenden county, then the warrant was sent to the sheriff of that county for execution.—Livingston Enterprise.

ISSUES WARNING TO THE NEGROES

Judge Henderson Puts Quietus
On Plan to Control
Elections

Princeton, Ky., June 8.—At the opening of the summer term of the Caldwell circuit court here Tuesday Judge Carl Henderson gave vigorous instructions to the grand jury, severely arraigning "night riding" "possum hunting" or the confederating and banding together for the purpose of intimidation of others.

He called attention to an alleged effort said to have been made here recently to form an organization among the negroes for the purpose of controlling or corrupting elections. It was alleged that an attempt was made to organize an "independent club" among the negroes, and the members of the club were required to subscribe to a "blood oath." He warned the negroes through the grand jury against making any such organization and said that the man who instigated such an organization should be in the penitentiary whether he be white or black.

He denounced bootleggers and blind tiger operators, and asked the grand jury to investigate concerning alleged violation of

FARMERS WIFE MAY DIE FROM STORM RESULTS

Injuries Resulting From Falling Timbers May Cause Death of Farmer's Wife

Mrs. Sam Brewer, wife of a well known Marshall county farmer, was seriously injured Monday night when the storm and rain which visited Mayfield demolished the Brewer home, twelve miles north of Hardin. Mrs. Brewer sustained a broken rib and a dislocated shoulder from the falling debris, while Brewer himself received a deep cut on the chin. Their home is a total wreck.

Marshall county barns were damaged severely by the storm. The barn of Dow Gardener in the vicinity of Benton was slightly damaged, while the wind blew down a barn belonging to Willis McKendree, two miles north of Benton. Three horses and one cow were killed here, and the loss will approximate $2,000. The roof of the Methodist church near Hardin was blown off, while a horse belonging to Zack Wade was killed when the lightning struck his barn.

Damage to crops in Marshall county where the storm seemed most severe in West Kentucky, was heavy, and the loss will be large. Trees were snapped off by wind and lightning, and a general petty damage was the result of the storm.—Messenger.

More Than $80,- 000 Promised for Campaign

Chicago, Ill., June 10.—Theodore Roosevelt was nominated today by the progressive national convention after four days uproar and tumult and the delegates never wavered in their allegiance or cast a passing glance upon another man.

Three minutes before the convention adjourned until another time, Chairman Raymond Robbins read to them a brief message from Oyster Bay, in which Roosevelt declined to accept the nomination at this time. Few of the thousands in the great auditorium realized when Robbins rapped the gravel at 4:58 and declared the convention adjourned sine die, that in a few hours or a few weeks they might be a party without the one leader to whom they came to Chicago to give their pledge of loyalty and faith.

The significance of Roosevelt's message, with its announcement that if the progressive national committee found the substance of the statements of Charles Evans Hughes, the republican standard bearer, to its liking, his non-acceptance of the progressive nomination should stand as his last word, was lost in the tired throng, worn out by its own enthusiasm, by the long delays over the peace parleys with the republicans and by the discussion of a platform, on which it must go into the field, if at all, against both the forces of democracy and republicanism.

Before they left the hall the delegates, under the spur of leaders, promised more than $80,000 for the campaign.

THE BATTLE CRY OF PEACE

This call to arms against war touches the heart strings of your every emotion. It appeals to your sense of honor, your sense of duty as an American. It is an inspired revelation from the pen of J. Stuart Blackton and produced under his personal supervision.

It is more than a picture. It is a great national propaganda which deals with the most important problem that has confronted this nation since the Civil War—the problem of unpreparedness.
